PRESIDENT'S DAY PITCHER/CATCHER ID CLINIC

This is an opportunity to do an extensive clinic for the battery on the diamond. The President's Day Pitcher/Catcher's ID Clinic is a great way to kick-off the spring season. Each participant will receive curriculum and education from the UConn coaching staff as well as a thorough evaluation for all participants.

Pitchers Receive

- Throwing program with an arm care program
- Conditioning Program and Diet Plan
- Classroom curriculum; including PFP Program, Pitch 101, and Pitch-Calling
- NCAA Compliance education
- Evaluation of Bullpen

Catchers Receive

- Throwing program with an arm care program
- Conditioning Program and Diet Plan
- Classroom curriculum; including Daily Cather's Work: Blocking, receiving, and pitch-calling
- NCAA Compliance education
- Evaluation of defensive skills and offensive skills

Objective: To help the high school player fine tune their craft at the battery positions

UConn Baseball under Head Coach Jim Penders

- More wins than any other Division I collegiate program in New England during his time as Head Coach.
- Rated Top 25 in the country in four of last seven seasons
- Been to four NCAA Regionals (Hosting in 2010 and winning the Clemson Regional in 2011).
- Three conference championships in past 7 years
- Developed 40 professional players including four current major leaguers

5 Reasons to Attend Team Camp

- Player development from UConn coaching staff
- Full Curriculum at the pitcher and catcher position
- Full evaluation of performance at camp
- Learn and compete at one of the best indoor facilities in the northeast; the Shinkman Training Center
- Great way to kick off the upcoming spring season.
